Name as it will appear with statement: Gus Vallejo
My occupation is: Retired ~~as~~ Systems Analyst
My qualifications are:

Keep Text Within the Vertical Lines. Word count starts here:

After a 25-year career in support of the San Francisco Employees Retirement System as a Principal Business Systems Analyst, I retired recently. During my tenure as a proud civil servant, I held various leadership positions with IFPTE Local 21, including IT Chapter President, San Francisco Regional Vice President, and Local President for six years. My experience in both labor activism and business analytics makes me uniquely qualified to represent the interests of active and retired members, as well as their beneficiaries, on the Health Services Board.

If elected, I am committed to three goals:

- PROTECT OUR HARD-WON BENEFITS: I pledge to safeguard our existing health benefits and advocate for policies that further enhance them.
- INCREASE MEMBER ENGAGEMENT: I will actively seek opportunities to increase member participation, ensuring all voices are heard and valued.
- ENSURE COMPREHENSIVE, COST-EFFECTIVE SERVICES: I pledge to maintain the high quality of our services while exploring innovative approaches to ensure cost-effective solutions that meet the diverse needs of all members.

I am honored to be endorsed by Claire Zvanski, Protect our Benefits (POB) and Retired Employees of the City & County of San Francisco (RECCSF).
